

SNOW NOTES

THE WRONGFUL CONVICTION OF JAMIE SNOW AND HOW THEY GOT AWAY WITH IT

Officer Jeff Pelo Night of the Crime, 3/31/1991:

"I observed threw the glass door a tennis-shoe sticking out from behind the counter [...] I turned and looked down at the victim he was lying on his chest. Legs were slightly bent left arm was under his body. Right arm was bent at elbow towards his chest. Head was facing the west wall."

Officer Paul Williams, Jamie Snow's Trial, 1/2/2001:

"The body had been a more laying on his side like on an arm, maybe the way some people would sleep on their side, and his knees were curled up towards his chest; and he would have been actually physically behind the simulated wood counter."

Jeff Pelo, 4/1/2020:

"He was behind the counter, head to the south, face was looking towards the west, feet to the north. Door is on the south side of the store, room is on the north."