N On 05-09-91, Sgt. Mike Bernardini of the Illinois State Police DCI and I went to the McLean County Jail to meet with Attorney Mike Barford and his client [redacted], who is in custody at the jail. Prior to making contact with [redacted], we spoke with his court appointed attorney Mike Barford. Barford was informed of the circumstances as to why we requested to speak with Palumbo about other armed robberies and possible knowledge of the Clark Oil Murder including a conversation he had with a person who admitted shooting the attendant. [redacted] was brought from the jail to the CID interview room where he spoke with Mr. Barford alone prior to the interview. After the meeting between [redacted] and Mr. Barford was completed, Sgt. Bernardini and I again spoke with Mr. Barford. He advised us that we may speak with his client about the conversation he had with the possible suspect. He also stated he wanted us to talk to his client about his involvement in the armed robbery that he was in custody for. We were also informed that we could speak with [redacted] about his knowledge of other crimes committed. Mr. Barford advised us that he would not be present in the room during the interview but he would check back with us in about twenty minutes. He then left. Sgt. Bernardini and I then entered the interview room and asked him if he wished to speak with us without his attorney present. He said yes he would talk to us.

N Sgt. Bernardini placed a statement of constitutional rights and waiver form and advised [redacted] that we needed to advise him of his rights before we would talk to him. Sgt. Bernardini would then start to read the waiver form when [redacted] would interupt and say that he was afraid that Snow and [redacted] would harm him and his family. He was stopped several times and advised to let us finish reading the form to him. After several tries, [redacted] did not interupt and Sgt. Bernardini was able to read the rights and waiver form to Ed [redacted]. [redacted] stated yes after each portion of the rights that were read to him and he did sign the waiver form and agreed to speak with us. [redacted] stated that he had knowledge of four or five different armed robberies and burglaries committed by Jamie Snow. He was asked to tell us about the armed robberies he had knowledge of. He thought the robbery had ocurred some time in Feb. [redacted] stated he was told by Jamie Snow while they were over to [redacted] house on Front street. Further he stated present when the admission was made by Snow were [redacted] and [redacted]. They were at the house smoking some pot. Sgt. Bernardini asked [redacted] how he met the people mentioned and he stated he met them through Jamie Snow. He then went on to say that one day Jamie Snow brought Mike [redacted] over to his trailer and was introduced to him that way around the end of February of 1991. [redacted] was then asked how he knew that Mike [redacted] Jamie Snow were the ones who robbed the Freedom Oil on N. Linden. [redacted] then stated that one day Jamie Snow had told him that he and [redacted] robbed the Freedom. On another day while talking to [redacted] [redacted] he told him that both he and Jamie robbed the Freedom and [redacted] admitted he was the one who went inside and pointed the gun at the attendant while Jamie waited outside, because Jamie was a punk. [redacted] was then asked about the next armed robbery that he had knowledge of. He stated that on seperate days, both [redacted] and [redacted] had admitted to him that they held up a gas station in St. Louis but they did not say exactly what station they held up. He stated that [redacted] had showed him a large amount of cash. This discussion between [redacted] and [redacted] occurred at [redacted] house. He went on to say the discussion between him and [redacted] also occurred at her house. [redacted] was not sure when the discussions took place or when the armed robbery took place but believes it was during the time that Detective Barkes and I were investigating the Freedom Oil Armed Robbery in Bloomington in March.

N Sgt. Bernardini then asked [redacted] about the next crime that he had knowledge of. [redacted] then became upset and wanted to know what was going to happen to him and was afraid he was going to be harmed by them. He was asked if he was telling what happened because he was involved in any of them. [redacted] then stated he was not involved in any crimes. Sgt. Bernardini asked about the armed robbery he was arrested for and [redacted] replied that he did not take part in the Bus Station armed robbery. He stated it was Jamie Snow and [redacted] who committed the robbery and that they used [redacted] car. [redacted] stated he wanted to address the circumstances of his arrest. He said the only reason he admitted driving the car with [redacted] when the Bus Station was robbed was because it was the only way that he would be able to go home. [redacted] stated that [redacted] knew that his car was not in working condition and told him that he had no choice. [redacted] was advised that we were not going to address the issue during the interview and that the issue should be addressed in court.

At that point in the interview, Sgt. Bernardini left the room to answer a page concerning an unrelated case. [redacted] then began talking to me about why I didn't catch [redacted] when he called [redacted] to tell us where he was and that he was leaving town. I told him that I didn't know what he was talking about. He then stated he was at [redacted] house talking to his wife [redacted] and he called the station to tell [redacted] that [redacted] was leaving with Scott (LNU)

N I informed [redacted] that I had not been told of that information and asked if he knew the last name of Scott. He said that he did not know Scott's last name and didn't know a lot of people at [redacted] house. During this time, Sgt. Bernardini re-entered the room and took part in the discussion. [redacted] then started talking about the Bus Station Armed Robbery again and said he had a conversation with [redacted] at her house when she told that [redacted] and Jamie used her car for the armed robbery at the Bus Station. [redacted] believes the conversation was approximately one week after the robbery occurred. [redacted] said he was not sure if Mary had admitted to driving the car but he is sure that both Jamie Snow and [redacted] took part in the crime.

Sgt Bernardini then asked what crime [redacted] had knowledge of involving Jamie Snow. [redacted] replied that Jamie had told him about doing a burglary to West Side Liquors on south Morris ave. Jamie told [redacted] that he forced his way into the building through the back door and he and another person, who Jamie did not give a name to [redacted] tried to pry open the safe but could not get into it. [redacted] states Jamie told him that they took Lottery tickets and money from the cash register.

I asked [redacted] when this burglary occurred and he replied he thought it was during the time that Detective Barkes and I were investigating [redacted] and Jamie for the Freedom robbery.

N The next crime discussed by [redacted] was the armed robbery at the Clark Oil gas station that occurred last December, 1990. [redacted] stated that it was committed by Jamie Snow and another person. [redacted] states he is not sure whether [redacted] was involved or if he was even in town yet when the robbery occurred. He then stated that the other person with Snow lived on west Monroe and believes he had brown hair, but didn't know his name. [redacted] was asked how he knew it was Jamie Snow and he replied Jamie had told him. He believes the discussion took place at Jamie's trailer in Park City South.

During the discussion about the robbery that occurred at the Clark Oil in December of 1990, [redacted] began talking about the time that Jamie and him were at Jamie's trailer when two handguns were shown to him. [redacted] stated no one else was at the trailer when this happened. He states he not sure of when this took place, but that they were smoking some pot when Jamie got up and went into the other room and pulled out two revolvers from a hole in one of the walls. [redacted] described the guns as one blue and one silver in color. The blue revolver was described as a short barrel 38 caliber. [redacted] states he is sure that the blue gun was a 38 cal. because he saw the marking on the gun. He believes it had a 4" barrel. He then described the silver revolver as a 6" barrel and said it looked like a 38 caliber but was not positive of caliber.

[REDACTED] was asked if he knew where Jamie Snow got the handguns. He stated he did not know but thought they were stolen.

Sgt. Bernardini then asked about the discussion that [REDACTED] had with Jamie Snow. [REDACTED] states it was the next day after he had given Detective Barkes and I the typed statement about the Bus Station armed robbery. [REDACTED] states he had just left his friend, [REDACTED] house on west Olive and was approaching Morris. [REDACTED] states he saw Jamie Snow in a blue Ford Pinto with his wife [REDACTED] and another female, but did not know her name. [REDACTED] described the female as white, with blonde hair and not very good looking. [REDACTED] then stated that they pulled their cars along side of each other and had a conversation. Jamie Snow had asked [REDACTED] if he could get him some pot. [REDACTED] states he told Snow no. He further stated that Jamie then asked him "DID YOU HEAR WHAT I DID". [REDACTED] states he again said no to Snow. Snow then stated "DID YOU HEAR ABOUT THE KID THAT I SHOT AT THE CLARK STATION". [REDACTED] states he again said no to Jamie. Snow then stated "HAVE GUN, GO OFF, KID DIES"

[REDACTED] then told Sgt. Bernardini that he didn't want to hear what Snow had to say because he was a crazy fucker and he was still pissed over the typed statement he had given to Detective Barkes and I and wasn't in a very good mood when he saw Snow.
